- Check out iPads, Chromebooks, and video equipment at the South Branch, for use in the library.

What about library fines?

If they are not on HOLD for another patron, library materials can be renewed (by phone, in person, or online at summitcountylibraries.org) When library materials are overdue, a library fine will be incurred.

- Books, DVDs, CD Books, and magazines are checked out for two weeks and may be renewed twice.
- Following the due date, there is a 7-day grace period when materials can be returned without charge.
- On day eight, the fine will be $.25 per item per day from the original due date.
- Maximum fines are $3.00 per item.

To find out more about Summit County Library and how it can serve you, please contact any of the Summit County libraries, or go online to summitcountylibraries.org

By accepting a library card, I agree.....

- That my library privileges may be revoked until overdue materials are returned and fines paid.
- To pay replacement costs and processing fees for any materials that I lose or damage.
- That my library card is required to check out materials.
- If family members or friends are added to my account, all charges incurred remain my responsibility.
- That signing my Summit County Library card constitutes agreement to the conditions listed above.
