

Fee Policies and Procedures for the Use of the Breckenridge Grand Vacation Community Center and Summit County South Branch
Library Meeting Room Facilities

I. Purpose. The purpose of these policies and procedures (“Fee Policy”) is to establish guidelines regarding the charging of fees for the meeting room facilities of the Breckenridge Grand Vacation Community Center and Summit County South Branch Library Meeting Room Facilities (the “Center”).

II. General Policy. It is the policy of the Town of Breckenridge Council (the “Town”) and Board of County Commissioners of Summit County, Colorado (the “County”) to promote the use of the Center’s meeting rooms (the “Meeting Rooms”) in a manner that makes such facilities available to various aspects of the Town of Breckenridge and Summit County Communities, and still presents a viable fiscal means of defraying the costs of operation of the facility. Accordingly, the Meeting Rooms in the Center shall be made available for use, subject to the fee schedule set forth below, by all members of the general community, including without limit County departments, County sponsored organizations, various civic and community based groups, as well as private organizations and personal functions, subject to availability, and for meetings related to government or civic operations and issues. Use and operation of the Meeting Rooms is specifically subject to the 103 South Harris Street Building Lease and the South Branch of the Summit County Library at the Breckenridge Grand Vacations Community Center Operational Plan, dated January 9th, 2015, as it may from time to time be amended (the “Lease and Plan”). These policies supersede any existing policies and procedures for the Center.

III. Facilities Available to the Public. The Center’s Meeting Rooms shall be available for use from 8 am – 8 pm Monday through Sunday for noncommercial use by the general public, including: public or private nonprofit organizations, civic organizations, religious groups, community oriented groups, and residents of Summit County. All meetings or activities require a key and damage deposit ~~and those that extend beyond normal business hours require an additional key deposit unless exempted by the County Manager or his/her designee.~~

Meeting Room users may not conduct any illegal activities on the premises nor may users engage in activities which, in the opinion of the County and Town, create excessive noise or other disturbances, or risk of injury to persons or property. Provided, nothing herein shall be deemed to create a duty on the part of the County or Town to inspect, police, or otherwise regulate the activities conducted on the premises. In no event shall any use disrupt, interfere or impede the operations of the Center.

A complete description of the Meeting Rooms, seating capacity, and available equipment may be obtained online at SummitCountyLibraries.org or from the South Branch Library circulation desk located at 103 South Harris Street Breckenridge, CO 80424.

IV. Fees.

- A. Fee Policy. The County and Town will continue to, from time to time as deemed necessary, establish fee rates for the use of the Center facilities and equipment. Fees shall be paid ~~prior to the event or~~ within 30 days of receipt of an invoice. Any user failing to pay for the use of the Center’s meeting room facilities or for damages assessed by the County will be denied future use of any County or Town meeting room facilities until all accounts are paid in full.
- B. Fee Schedule. Standard fees for use of the Meeting Rooms shall be charged in accordance with Figure 1 below, at the following general rates, in accordance with the user group classifications, and/or the nature of the use contemplated, and scheduling time:

VI. Relationship between Fee Policies and Procedures for the Use of the Breckenridge Grand Vacation Community Center and Summit County South Branch Library Meeting Room Facilities, and overall Center Policies.

- A. This Fee Policy is intended to supplement, and be read and interpreted in conjunction with rather than in abrogation of, any policies and procedures as set forth in the general Policies and Procedures for the Use of the Breckenridge Grand Vacation Community Center and Summit County South Branch Library Meeting Room Facilities (“General Policy”), previously adopted by the County and Town and remaining in effect. All other terms and conditions of that Policy, are hereby reaffirmed and shall remain in full force and effect. Nevertheless, to the limited extent that the terms and conditions of this Fee Policy are deemed to be unavoidably inconsistent with the terms and conditions of the General Policy on matters directly pertaining to the setting of and imposition of fees for use of the Meeting Rooms, the specific provisions contained in this Fee Policy shall control and prevail as to such particular issues.
- B. General Policies on Use. All general policies related to the use of the Meeting Rooms as set forth in the General Policy, including without limit Section IV - Applications for Use and Reservations, Section V – Scheduling, Section VII -- Key and Damage Deposit, and Section IX -- Kitchen, shall remain in full force and effect and compliance with such policies shall continue to be absolute conditions of all use of the Meeting rooms.
- C. If any provision of this policy is held invalid or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not invalidate this ordinance in its entirety, and to this end the provisions of this ordinance are declared to be severable.
