1.1 RULES GOVERNING USE OF THE LIBRARY

The Library staff is responsible for maintaining a safe, orderly and comfortable environment in the Library.

Definitions

Library—any portion of the Library building or property, or any location in which a Library activity is taking place

Library Staff—any Library employee or Library volunteer

In order to maintain a safe and comfortable environment for the enjoyment of all, we ask that patrons/customers refrain from activities which include, but are not limited to:

- loitering
- placing feet on furniture
- sleeping
- talking on cell phones or any other electronic device
- soliciting
- leaving children unsupervised who may be at risk, vulnerable, or disruptive.
- bringing pets into the Library, other than service animals providing assistance to persons with disabilities
- leaving unattended pets on Library property, tethered or untethered
- harassing or purposefully annoying other persons or staff
- using abusive or obscene language
- viewing obscene material that is offensive to others in the building (obscenity in this document is: anything offensive to community standards of modesty or decency)
- using tobacco, marijuana, alcohol or illegal substances of any kind.
- being disorderly
- committing any acts set and determined to be illegal by local, state or federal law or ordinance.

Anyone who violates these rules may be banned from the Library.
